

April 2, 2019

For Immediate Release

Sumitomo Mitsui Finance and Leasing Company, Limited
Sumitomo Corporation

Notice of Completion of Joint Stake in Aircraft Engine Leasing Company

Sumitomo Mitsui Finance and Leasing Company, Limited (“SMFL;” President: Masaki Tachibana) and Sumitomo Corporation (“Sumitomo Corp;” Representative Director, President and CEO: Masayuki Hyodo) completed a transfer of 65% of the shares of aircraft engine leasing company Sumisho Aero Engine Lease B.V. (CEO: Akinori Kojima), a joint venture between Sumitomo Corp and MTU Aero Engines (“MTU;” CEO: Reiner Winkler), a major German-based company that manufactures and services aircraft engines, on April 1, 2019 based on a share purchase agreement signed on December 28, 2018. The company has launched operations anew under the name SMBC Aero Engine Lease B.V.

Overview of the joint-venture company

Name	SMBC Aero Engine Lease B.V.
Head Office Address	Strawinskylaan 1639, 1077X Amsterdam, the Netherlands
Shareholders and ownership ratios	Before share acquisition by SMFL Sumitomo Corp: 90%, MTU: 10% After share acquisition by SMFL SMFL: 65%, Sumitomo Corp: 25%, MTU: 10%
Capital	1,000 euro
Main business	Aircraft engine leasing

For inquiries about the information in this press release:

Inquiries to SMFL

Contact Keiichi Igarashi, Corporate Communications Section

Telephone: +81-3-5219-6334

Inquiries to Sumitomo Corporation

Contact Yosuke Yamawaki or Masaaki Nakamura, Corporate Communications

Dept.

Telephone: +81-3-6285-5607